CANTON MCC COMBATS SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES; --
KMT GUERRILLAS CAPTURE ARMS, KILL CCF TROOPS

CANTON CLAMPS DOWN ON KMT SPECIAL AGENTS -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 31 May 50

Canton, 30 May -- The Canton Military Control Commission has announced that it will intensify its efforts to eliminate KMT special agents. Announcement was also made that those found guilty of subversive activities will be given heavier punishment.

Of the 100 or more individuals arrested recently on suspicion of being special agents, 12 were found guilty of armed resistance and insurrection and were sentenced to death while 70 were found guilty of creating public unrest by spreading false rumors and were sent either to the Northeast or to Hainan for indoctrination. Some 25 individuals were placed under probation for lack of evidence.

INCORPORATES INSPECTION UNITS INTO PEOPLE'S POLICE -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 1 Jun 50

As of 1 June 1950, the Canton inspection units (chiu-ch'a tui) were incorporated into the People's Police and the members were assigned to the various branches of the Public Security Bureau for duty. In the past, these inspection units were maintained by the local inhabitants but the responsibility has now been delegated to the government.

The so-called peace preservation committees of the various streets were asked to continue with their functions and to cooperate with the branch offices of the Public Security Bureau to aid in the enforcement of security in their areas.

KMT GUERRILLAS KILL 60 RED TROOPS -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 31 May 50

On 18 May 1950, the troops of the Third Detachment of the East Kwangtung KMT Guerrilla Column attacked the Communist troops who were collecting provisions at Wu-hua and Tzu-chin and killed more than 60 of them. In addition, they captured two light machine guns, six pistols, and more than 50 rifles.

On 20 May, the chairman of the hsien assembled more than 200 public security troops to attack this guerrilla detachment. In the battle which lasted for about half a day, the guerrillas were able to repulse the attack and killed or injured more than 80 Communist troops. During the engagement, the guerrillas captured two heavy machine guns, four light machine guns, and some 20 rifles.

KMT GUERRILLAS CAPTURE COMMUNIST OFFICIALS -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 31 May 50

Taihoku, 30 May -- It is reported that the KMT guerrillas in Chekiang are intensifying their activities. On 21 May 1950, a number of Communist officials who were enroute to Hangchow to attend the Production Conference were captured by the KMT guerrillas. Those captured included a provincial councillor, the chairman of a hsien, and the chairman of a municipal chamber of commerce. The prisoners were sent to Ta-ch'en Island located about 190 miles south of Shanghai where they were placed on trial.

It is further reported that the KMT guerrillas are pillaging the Communist warehouses causing great anxiety to the Communist authorities. The most recent raid was made at Lin-hai where 11 Communist guards were killed and a large quantity of foodstuffs was stolen.

KMT GUERRILLAS OUTWIT COMMUNIST OFFICIALS -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 31 May 50

On 27 May 1950, some 30 KMT guerrillas, representing themselves as troops of the Ts'eng Sheng's CCF Liang-kuang Column and armed with two light machine guns and a number of small arms, contacted the officials of the Hao-t'ou Village Association in Chung-shan, Kwangtung, and demanded that the association surrender its arms and ammunition. Finding that the credentials were in order, the officials turned over one light machine gun, 30 rifles, four pistols, and several hundred rounds of ammunition. Later they discovered that the credentials had been forged.

HAINAN PUSHES BANDIT-SUPPRESSION CAMPAIGN -- Hong Kong Wen-hui Pao, 18 Jun 50

Hai-k'ou, 16 June (Hsin-hua) -- The People's Liberation Army of Hainan has announced that more than 4,000 bandits were either killed or captured during May 1950. It attributed the success of the campaign to the propaganda methods which resulted in the volunteer surrender of more than 3,100 bandits. Captured equipment included 123 boats, three 60-millimeter mortars, 2,112 small arms, 11 grenade dischargers, and several thousand rounds of ammunition.

WORLD WAR II HERO FORMS GUERRILLA UNIT -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 31 May 50

Oppressive activities by the Communist troops in Ku-liao Village in P'an-yu Hsien, Kwangtung, are causing the inhabitants of this village great anxiety. In many cases, troops search homes without warrants on the pretense of searching for reactionary elements. Because some arms were discovered, a number of individuals were falsely arrested as members of a guerrilla unit.

Su Wang, a World War II hero who fought the Japanese behind the enemy lines, was one of the men suspected of subversive activities. Because his presence in the village meant continued unwarranted search by the Communist troops, he fled the village and formed a guerrilla unit to oppose the Communists.
